Williams Crossing, constructed in 2006, is a 49,958 square foot Wal-Mart (one of the busiest in the state of Indiana) shadow anchored center located in Bedford, Indiana-the county seat of Lawrence County. Located just off U.S. Route 50, which sees over 20,000 vehicles per day of commuter traffic, Williams Crossing is well positioned as the dominant center for the market. Other nearby major retailers include Dunham's Sports, Rural King, Lowe's, Big Lots, and Tractor Supply Company. Great merchants, ample parking, multiple points of access, as well as pylon signage make Williams Crossing the ideal retail hub for Bedford, Indiana.
